Canada’s accounting profession is uniting under a new single designation, Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA). October 1 marked the final step in the creation of CPA Canada—Canada’s sole national accounting body created through the consolidation of operations of three national accounting organizations: the Society of Management Accountants of Canada, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada and the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants.

As one of the largest accounting bodies in the world, CPA Canada’s leadership will inspire confidence and increase the global influence of the Canadian accounting profession.
